W. P. REES,

Publisher and Proprietor.

WILMER, B.C., THURSDAY, SEPT. 4, 1902.

Work has not yet started on the new channel. Wonder if the government is too moody—Henry?

The Vancouver domestic Chinks have formed a union and the Daily Province says that already many a mistress of a household has felt its power, and wrinkles have appeared on brows hitherto unlined. There is a point for the white servant girl, they should tell the mistress that the Chink causes wrinkles, and the yellow scourge would soon have to disappear.

Now that the Spring creek basin wagon road is to be constructed this fall there will be plenty of employment for every man in this district, and in fact more men are now needed. The building of the road is only a portion of the activity that will be seen up this creek this fall and winter. A 1000 foot tunnel is to be started on the Paradise to tap the great ore body at a depth of about 700 feet. Ore will be taken out of the present workings and 2000 tons or more of ore will be transported to the ore sheds at the river. Thus it is that the construction of this road means much to the prosperity of this district.

Add to this the fact that the McDonald Creek Mines people are making ready to install a compressor plant and sawmill up McDonald creek and will ship ore this winter and it is very evident that this district will not be idle.

Besides these two there are a number of other properties working on a smaller basis, so that the outlook for the Windermere District is very bright, especially considering the quietness of other portions of this Province.

No western editor should get hot when asked: "Do you eat regularly, now?" Anyone who is at all familiar with any western editor knows that it is the proper question to ask at all times. Steve Wilson always asked us that—wonder if Steve has eaten up all that M. T. ore yet? Just to make the Slokan editors feel sad, below we print our menu for Tuesday, and bet our Washington press that it beats anything Billy MacAdam's got on his Government meal ticket while resting at the Capital:

An Editor's Dinner in Windermere District.

Soup—Mixed Vegetables and Wild Duck.

Pen—Mountain Trout, caught by Bob McKenna.

Meat—Pheasant, shot by our friend Mountain Trout, shot by R. S. Gallon. Vegetables—Potatoes and Cabbage, from Sunshine Ranch; Cauliflower and Turnips, from C. T. Ross's garden.

Best Pickles, from Susan's kitchen. Jellies, from G. A. Ross's garden. Desserts—cherry preserve, from S. Brown's garden; Lemon Pie, like me's. Basket of Flowers, from R. Kennedy's garden. Fruit—Big Fat Plums, from M. J. Henry's Nursery, Vancouver; Blueberries, picked on THE OUTCROP lot. Drinks—Apple Pudding and Blue Ribbon Tea.

The present production of farm produce in the Upper Columbia valley, is but a promise of what we shall have in the not distant future. Every year, with the rapidly increasing population, will see the harvests larger and the consequent volume of trade great in that direction, until we have actually realized that period of our growth and that aim which we cherish and have become indeed the envy of all the Kootenays. That our agricultural land is of immense value cannot be gainsaid, and as this country is essentially a mining country there will always be good prices for everything the soil can produce. Fortunate, indeed, are the men who have taken up land in this valley and the day will soon arrive when others will keenly regret that they have allowed their present opportunities to go by, when with little effort they might secure land that will be worth more money than they ever hope to possess.

This will never be a great grainary, but it will be a "garden valley." This year, for the first time, the supply of vegetables will reach the demand, but as our mines are only in their infancy the demand will be greater and greater each year, and so our ranchers may brake more soil and others take up land. The great crops raised in every portion of the valley this and every year leaves no room whatever for argument as to the fertility of the soil.

Grain grows well here, but fruit and vegetables are more profitable and will be grown more extensively.

WILMER

(Formerly Peterborough),

East Kootenay, B.C.

The Trade Centre of the Upper Columbia Valley.

Flanked by the Rocky Mountains to the east and the great mineral zone of the Selkirk to the west.

Government roads radiate from Wilmer to the Toly and Horse Thief Mining Camps and all points of importance in the Windermere Mining Division, including the Paradise and Red Line mines, and the beautiful park like ranching tracts of the valley.

Although a new town, Wilmer has made remarkable progress. Among its institutions may be mentioned the court house at which county court for the district is held periodically, a public school, a hospital supported by the district, postal money order office, newspaper, doctor, provincial land surveyor, drug store, general store, saw mill, livery stable, hotels, etc. The Presbyterian and Roman Catholic denominations are represented. It is the headquarters from which the Paradise and Red Line mines are operated.

A telegraph office connecting with Golden will be opened shortly.

The great extent of high grade mineral and ranching country tributary to Wilmer ensure for it a rapid growth.

Steamboats leave Golden on the Canadian Pacific Railway every Tuesday and Friday arriving at Wilmer the same day. Stage connection weekly with Golden and Fort Steele.

A limited number of lots are now on the market. For further particulars apply to

L. H. MOFFATT, Sec'y Peterborough Townsite Co., Ltd., Rossland, or J. A. KIRK, Managing Director, Wilmer.

And movements vigorously held,
With health and strength in overplus
You're nothing if not strenuous!What time the old-fashioned maid (Upon the lawn at sunset played,
She did not shrink at the sight
At sunset, but at sunset!But you, dear Madge, have driven hence
Since dallying incoherence;
Your prowess holds my heart in thrall,
Impetuous mallet, flying ball!I watch at ping-pong your attack,
And tremble for my precious racket!
To all, you have a single aim,
And that "the rigor of the game!"And yet—I trust to time for cure—
The strenuous mood can scarce endure.
No sweet eighteen! "Till pass away
In the great game you've yet to play."That you must play—yourself the prize—
With beating heart and downcast eyes.
Ah, Madge! you'll be contented then,
